Howe, of Bourbon county, and a sister of Mrs. Sam Shrodt, of Paris; Mrs. Bettie Sparks, of Cynthia, and Mrs. Lucy Parrish, of Dayton, Ky. The funeral and burial took place in Comiskey.

NORTHCOTT.

—Mr. John B. Northcott, of Paris, received information of the death at Clifton Heights, near Newport, of Mrs. Hannah Northcott, aged ninety years. She was the wife of Rev. H. C. ## BARBEE.

—Mr. F. J. Barbee, one of Bourbon's former citizens, who has been residing with his son, Mr. John F. Barbee, in Monticello, Arkansas, died there last Saturday afternoon, after a short illness. The Monticello (Ark.) Advance says:

"Last Saturday afternoon about 2:05 o'clock at the residence of his son, Mr. J. F. Barbee, one of Monticello's well-known citizens, Mr. F. J. Barbee, died very suddenly. He had been ill a few days prior to his death but on the day on which he died he remarked that he had never felt better in his life. The remains were interred Monday afternoon at Oakland Cemetery, with the Rev. Flournoy Shepperson officiating. Mr. Barbee came to Monticello four years ago. He was from Kentucky having been reared at Millersburg, Bourbon county, and was a member of a distinguished family, his forefathers being among the first settlers of that State. His grandfather was a publisher of 'The Gazette' at Lexington, and the first newspaper west of the Allegheny Mountains.

"His wife preceded him to the grave a number of years ago. He is survived by an only son, Col. J. F. Barbee, of this city.

"In the death of Mr. Barbee the South loses one of its typical old chivalrous Southern bluebloods, who have made our country noteworthy for its hospitality and one-heartedness. He was the soul of honor and integrity, a man of many and close friends, a citizen of worthy and straightforward morality. Many friends, attached and bound to him during his life by his sterling traits, join in offering sympathy to the bereaved family."

APRIL NUMBER OF "EVERYSTUDENT" OUT

The April number of "Everystudent," the Paris High School monthly issued by the students of the school, has been issued from THE BOURBON NEWS job rooms.

The April number, like its predecessors, is an excellent and most interesting one, being full of good things, in a literary way, from the first page to the last.

The contents embrace, besides the athletic and editorial contributions, contributions as follows: "A Story With a Moral," by Lottie Crowe; "In Memoriam," by Edna Snapp; "A Letter From Willowmore Vale," by Lilly Kennedy; "The Biography of My Grandmother," by Dorothy Harris; "Why Go To College," by Jennings Taylor; "Toasts For the Teams," by C. C. Daves and Raymond Connell; "Revised," by Jennings Taylor; "Transcendentalism," by J. Taylor; "The Sun Fairies' Strike," by Lottie Crowe, and two unsigned contributions comprise articles dealing with the basketball team's successful season. Among the news features are a review of the Girls' Glee Club program; the honor roll, and expressions of esteem and sympathy to Mrs. Ernest Harris in the death of her lovely daughter, Dorothy, a P. H. S. student loved by all; also sympathy resolutions to Charles Chappell, on the death of his father. A remarkably brilliant and clever contribution by Miss Dorothy Harris is one of the features of the publication.

THE CENSORSHIP.

It is not probable that the Government and the press will have any differences as to the manner in which war news should be handled. Such requests as that the press refrain from publishing the date of the departure of steamers, or their destination, are too reasonable to be refused. The probability is that every steamer which leaves any American port now is being watched by German spies. It will be necessary to get rid of the spies before any real secrecy as to departures and destinations can be maintained, but the press will do all it can to help the cause. It will in all matters be responsive to the reasonable requests, demands or orders of the Government, assured that the Government never will try to abridge its rights as has been done in Europe.

MATRIMONIAL.

—Dan Cupid has been "listening in" on the telephone wires again. This is the information conveyed to THE NEWS man, meaning that another of the Cumberland Telephone Co.'s popular operators is to renounce single blessedness and soon become the wife of a former county official, who is now engaged in farming near Paris. The marriage will take place in Paris this week. The bride-to-be and her future husband have both been residents of Paris several years, and both are deservedly popular.

DAVID—WILSON.

—Miss Josephine David, daughter of Mrs. M. David, of Shawhan, and Mr. Llewellyn Wilson, of Grant county, were married by Rev. W. O. Sadler, pastor of the Paris Methodist church, at the home of the bride's mother, in Shawhan.

CASSELL—STEWART.

—Miss Mary Leonard Cassell and Mr. Willis Taylor Stewart, both of Lexington, were married in that city last week. Both are well known here, where they have been frequent visitors as attendants upon the society dances.

The bride couple are now on their honeymoon trip, going to Fort Worth, Texas, the former home of Mr. Stewart. They will return to Lexington in about two weeks to reside.

FISHER—HENRY.

Miss Ruby Fisher and Mr. Arthur Harney, both of the Ruddles Mills vicinity, who secured a marriage license from County Clerk Pearce Patton last week, were married in Lexington in the private parlor of the Phoenix Hotel, Rev. L. J. Spencer, pastor of the Central Christian church, officiating. Friends of the young couple who witnessed the wedding were Miss Margaret Wilkerson, Mr. R. B. Rankin, Mrs. C. W. Harney and Miss Bessie Harney.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Fisher, of Ruddles Mills and has been a teacher in the county schools for several terms. She is a handsome and accomplished young woman. Mr. Harney is a well-known young farmer of the Ruddles Mills precinct.

A PRECAUTIONARY MEASURE.

Owing to the possible danger of important long distance messages being intercepted at night by designing persons, possible enemies of the American government, orders have been issued to managers of all exchanges of the Cumberland Telephone Co. to have all street entrance doors and other exits securely fastened from five o'clock in the afternoon until eight o'clock the following morning. Orders to this effect were received by Manager H. H. Floyd, of the Paris exchange, Sunday.

This is a purely precautionary measure, taken because the Government will now be using the long distance service in transmission of orders and assignment of troops for guard duty in the State. It has been pointed out that it would be a comparatively easy matter for someone with an expert knowledge of the workings of a telephone system to get possession of valuable information by means of the local telephone booth. It was rumored Sunday that guards would also be placed in the exchanges to protect the night operators and to watch for interference with the service.

The general public will understand from this why the Main street doors of the Paris exchange, in the Odd Fellows building, are closed and locked from five p. m. to eight a. m. the following morning, and govern themselves accordingly.

POPULAR SUPERINTENDENT HAS PRIVATE CAR.

The Louisville & Nashville has presented Mr. W. H. Anderson, Superintendent of the Kentucky Central Division, with a handsomely fitted up private car, which he will use in his inspection tours over the company's lines.

The car is a model of completeness and has every modern convenience for the comfort of the occupants, being supplied with sleeping compartments, kitchen, dining rooms, observation compartments, etc.

MEETING OF CREDITORS.

The creditors of Mr. Adam R. Davis, restaurant man, who filed a petition in bankruptcy some time ago in the U. S. District Court at Frankfort, held a meeting at the court house last week. Attorney P. A. Thompson was selected as Trustee for the bankrupt, and Messrs. Leer Stout, Frank Burton and J. A. Farris were selected to appraise the estate which will be disposed of at public sale soon.

TO ADMINISTER ESTATE.

The Bourbon-Agricultural Bank & Trust Company has been appointed by the County Court to administer the estate of the late Mr. John W. Tanner of Bourbon County, who died suddenly in Louisville some time ago while on a visit.

The Trust Company qualified by giving bond in the sum of $25,000, without surety, their charter dispensing with same. Mr. Tanner's estate, estimated at more than $25,000, comprises a large amount of cash, notes, etc.

RELIGIOUS.

—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moteer, of Hutchison precinct, have united with the Paris Presbyterian church.

TO STOP VOTE BUYING AND SELLING.

It is said that a fund is being raised in this city and county by a number of interested citizens in the interest of securing a clean and honest vote for all candidates on the ticket to be voted for at the primary election in August.

The fund, according to the best available information, has reached a sum in excess of $3,000, which will be used in a judicial way, in engaging the services of private detectives and to prosecute all violators of the laws. It is said that the sum will probably be doubled before its use will be required.

The recently-enacted corrupt practice law will do away with vote-buying and selling in a large way. Every candidate will be required to list his expenses, stating clearly what all money was expended for, and certainly none would be brazen enough to violate this law, with its rigid provisions.

THE WEATHER.

The forecast of the week beginning Sunday, April 8, as sent out by the Weather Bureau, is as follows:

For Ohio Valley and Tennessee—Unsettled and rain beginning of week, followed by fair until about Thursday or Friday, when rain again probable. First part cool; warmer after Tuesday.

The mean weather man rudely upset the well-laid plans for Easter parade Sunday, and set about the meanest weather the department had in stock. Following delightful weather of Saturday, Easter Sunday developed into a day of mingled rain and snow almost approaching a blizzard Sunday afternoon. Those who had anticipated the day as one of warmth and sunshine, in order to display their new spring outfits, were sadly disappointed. There was a good attendance at the Easter services in all the churches, despite the very disagreeable weather. The services were very impressive, special Easter music and sermons making up the program.

BIRTHS.

—To the wife of Mr. Thurman Hinkle, near Little Rock, a daughter, christened Anna Margaret Hinkle.

PUTTING IT ON "BEN."

In its "Notes of the Traveling Men" the Sunday Lexington Leader says: "The Hon. Benjamin 'Uneeda' Downey is the happiest man in Lexington to-day. He received a wire from the New York office Saturday telling him that he is the first man in the South ern jurisdiction to get on the roll of honor of the sales and general efficiency force of the National Biscuit Company. Ben is one of the most popular salesmen in Lexington territory."
